ISABELLA PORT
AGE 15
A-TECH

Isabella Port demonstrates strong leadership and school involvement through her willingness to support and guide others. She consistently gives her time to help classmates, often serving as the go-to student in her lab when others have questions or need guidance. She assists without expecting recognition and naturally leads by example, showing kindness and selflessness in the way she supports those around her. She can best be described as smart, inquisitive, dependable, and honorable. Her curiosity drives her to seek deeper understanding and continue learning, while her reliability and integrity make her someone teachers and peers can consistently count on. Isabella approaches her responsibilities with maturity and a strong sense of accountability, contributing positively to the classroom environment.

In addition to her academic and leadership strengths, she is also a talented cook and baker, demonstrating creativity, patience, and dedication in her personal interests outside of school. These skills reflect her ability to apply focus and effort beyond the classroom.

Together, Isabella's academic strengths, leadership qualities, and personal interests make her a well-rounded and respected member of her school community who positively impacts those around her.
