

GABRIELLA EVANS

Age 17
Edgewood High School

Gabriella has been described as the utmost model student. She has emerged as a leader among her peers, but does so with grace, humility, and a goal of promoting inclusivity.

Gabriella has taken the reins as a leader on the Principal's Advisory Council at Edgewood High School, which was developed to devise and execute projects that directly impact the community. Gabriella has never missed a meeting or event because she wants to do anything she can to better her school and community. She carries that commitment to service through her four-year participation on student council, where she is now the president, and is also a two-year member of the National Honors Society and Quiz Bowl team. She is a three-year All-A Team member and has been recognized as a student of the month recipient. Gabriella has been in the marching band and jazz band since her freshman year, and has been a squad leader for the last two years. She is also a four-year member of the school choir, and two-year member of the show choir. She has served on the homecoming planning committee for three years, and prom planning committee for two years, and is also a three-year member of the Book Club. Gabriella carries her leadership skills and ability to facilitate discussion and collaboration to the media department, where she serves as a school newspaper reporter and editor of the high school yearbook.
