

ADDISON KENNEDY

AGE 18/CONNEAUT HIGH SCHOOL

Addie's leadership extends beyond athletic pursuits in cross country and basketball; when faced with a teammate's family tragedy, she spearheaded a highly successful fundraising initiative during a home game, showcasing her compassion and ability to mobilize support. Addie has volunteered for numerous Rotary club projects and has organized community service projects through Youth Philanthropy and National Honor Society, dedicating her time and effort to multiple animal shelters and has contributed to community-wide initiatives like the Stuff the Bus drive and the Annual D Day event at the lake.

Addie has maintained an unblemished 4.0 GPA. Her commitment to learning is evident through her full load of college courses at Kent State Ashtabula, earning Deans List recognition as a high school student. By the time she graduates high school, she will have earned an impressive 55 college credits, all while working at Biscotti's Restaurant. Addie's academic excellence is further underscored by her acceptance into The University of Akron's Honors College and Emerging Leaders Program. She plans to major in Marketing with the goal of becoming a Sports Marketing Manager for the WNBA.
