eighteen under 18 Aliyah Stalter Edgewood High School- Age 17

Aliyah is a high-achiever, and is committed to her education and preparation for the future. She is a member of the Student Council, Captain's Council, Athletic Council, and was inducted into the National Honor Society her junior year. While working to complete several college courses her junior and senior years, she also maintained a 5 GPA (on a 5-point system) in her high school classes. She is a member of the volleyball team, and is a very visible and vocal supporter of her fellow teammates-energizing and encouraging everyone to give their best effort. Aliyah is also a softball player and a member of the school band.

Aliyah is involved in many community efforts to provide care and services to individuals who are in need, through her volunteer efforts with the Red Cross and assisting individuals with their medical appointments. She helped to organize, provide, and deliver Thanksgiving meals and Christmas gifts to needy families throughout Ashtabula County over the past several years. She balances her academics, extracurriculars, and volunteer efforts while also working several part-time jobs. Aliyah was recently accepted into Cleveland State University and awarded a merit scholarship to study nursing. In the future, she hopes to continue helping others with compassion and care!
