Kaelyn Hart

Grand Valley High School- Age 17

Kaelyn is highly organized and precise when it comes to problem-solving and conquering her goals. She has a heart for service and has accumulated over 100 volunteer hours, tutoring students who have fallen behind, and helping as an aide in the school office. She is involved in many clubs, including the Youth Philanthropic Advisory Board and the Youth Leadership Club. As a member of the Youth Philanthropic Advisory Board, Kaelyn has read countless grants from local nonprofit organizations, visited sites, and conducted interviews of candidates to determine which of those organizations would be funded.

Kaelyn is the Junior class Vice President, a National Honor Society inductee, and ranked 5th in her class; maintaining a 4.2 GPA while taking college-level classes at Eastern Gateway and Kent State University. Kaelyn manages a busy schedule of extracurricular activities, and is a varsity three-sport athlete in volleyball, basketball, and softball. She is an active member of the FFA, where she has participated in the annual fruit sales and community breakfast, and is a key organizer of the administrative duties for the group. Kaelyn leads her peers with warmth and enthusiasm, and is always prepared for whatever situation she faces. Her diligence and attention to detail earns the respect of both teachers and peers at Grand Valley High School.
