NOAH MARINO
AGE 18 GRAND VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Noah Marino strongly demonstrates leadership and community involvement through his commitment to both his school and local community. As Class Vice President, a Student Council Representative, and an active member of National Honor Society service events, he consistently takes initiative and leads by example. He has contributed his time to organizing school events such as junior prom, assisting with community activities like the Orwell Village Parade, and volunteering through programs like the Conversation Station.

Beyond school leadership, Noah balances 20–30 hours a week as a Shift Lead Manager at Orwell A&W, demonstrating responsibility, discipline, and a strong work ethic. In this role, he manages responsibilities that require organization, communication, and accountability, further strengthening his leadership and time management skills.

His ability to successfully balance demanding academics, extracurricular involvement, and employment highlights his maturity and dedication. Noah approaches each responsibility with a respectful attitude and a commitment to excellence. Through his analytical thinking, reliability, and willingness to support others, he consistently contributes positively to every environment he is part of.

Overall, Noah exemplifies the qualities of a thoughtful, dependable leader who leads by example and remains committed to serving both his school and the broader community.
