

ANTHONY COVETTA
AGE 18/JEFFERSON AREA H.S.

Anthony's exceptional work ethic, both in the classroom and on the basketball court, sets him apart. He approaches every endeavor—be it an assignment, basketball practice, game, or his college credit plus courses at Kent State Ashtabula—with unwavering commitment and 100% effort. Anthony's academic prowess is evident in his mastery of accounting principles and practices, where he excels in analytical thinking and problem-solving. His natural affinity for numbers, coupled with his critical and strategic thinking skills, allows him to navigate complex problems with ease. This has proven helpful while competing in the JA Titan Competition where he became CEO of his own cell phone company.

He is an active participant in the varsity Falcon basketball team and has earned numerous accolades, including membership in Jefferson's prestigious 1,000 career point club, first-team all-conference, first-team all-county, and all-Ohio honors. Most recently, he broke a decade-old record to become Ashtabula County's all-time leading scorer with 1,684 points. He hopes to continue his basketball career in college.
