LOUIS STROUDE
A-TECH

Louis demonstrates strong leadership and school involvement through his positive attitude and the influence he has on those around him. His ability to lead through encouragement and positivity helps create a supportive and productive classroom environment.

One of his most meaningful strengths is his role as a conflict resolver and peacemaker among his peers. He handles sensitive situations with maturity and calmness, often helping prevent disagreements from escalating into larger problems. His thoughtful approach and willingness to listen allow him to guide others toward respectful solutions, making him someone classmates naturally trust and rely on.

He can best be described as responsible, friendly, caring, smart, and forgiving. These qualities are reflected in the way he interacts with others and the respect he consistently shows to both peers and teachers. In addition to his strong character, Louis demonstrates impressive academic and technical abilities. He communicates clearly, stays highly organized with his work, and has developed advanced skills in computer programming and webpage development.

His leadership, reliability, and technical talent make him a valued member of his school community and a positive influence in both academic and social settings.
