NOAH DRAKE
AGE 16 EDGEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Noah stands out for his strong community and school involvement, as well as his leadership in everything he does. He is an active member of the Warrior Band and competes on both the varsity soccer and varsity football teams, where he consistently leads by example through his attitude, effort, and commitment.

Beyond his own activities, Noah dedicates his time to mentoring younger athletes through the Warrior Youth Football program. His goal is not only to help them improve their athletic skills, but also to build confidence, discipline, teamwork, and character. Through this mentorship, he demonstrates a genuine investment in the growth and development of others.

Despite balancing College Credit Plus coursework, varsity athletics, and band, Noah remains disciplined, dedicated, and selfless with his time. He is known for encouraging those around him and for the kindness and respect he consistently shows to both peers and younger students. His ability to manage multiple responsibilities while maintaining a positive attitude reflects his strong character and work ethic.

Noah's humility, leadership, and commitment to helping others truly represent the best of Edgewood High School. He excels in his own pursuits while consistently lifting others along the way, making a lasting impact on his school community.
