NATALEE SCHOR
AGE 18
JEFFERSON AREA HIGH SCHOOL

Natalee is a young woman of exceptional character, leadership, and determination. She serves as President of the National Honor Society, is an active member of the Philanthropy Club, participates in Ashtabula County Youth Leadership, and works as a High School Office Aide. She also contributes to extracurricular activities such as cheerleading, theatre, and choreographing at the Ashtabula Arts Center. Beyond school, Natalee is actively involved in her church, serving as a lector, Eucharistic Minister, and member of the local youth group.

Her role as Senior Class President exemplifies her initiative, professionalism, and integrity. Her peers and teachers recognize her as someone who steps up when challenges arise, consistently ensuring that tasks are completed efficiently and with care. She leads with responsibility and a strong sense of accountability, positively influencing those around her.

Natalee has maintained a perfect 4.0 GPA throughout high school while pursuing rigorous coursework, including College Credit Plus classes in American Literature and Diversity, College Writing I, General Psychology, and Statistics. Her conscientious work ethic, combined with her leadership and community involvement, makes her a well-rounded student whose dedication, talent, and compassion set her apart as a role model both in and outside the classroom.
