Vincent Kosar

St. John School- Age 10

Vincent is the ultimate team player, and impresses his teammates and coaches with his helpful and respectful attitude. Vincent is always willing to lend a hand to his younger teammates and peers, as well as help lead the room. Vincent is an active member of the school wrestling team, and involved in sports throughout the community; participating in sports camps held at the school. He truly embodies the phrase “there is no I in team”, and believes in playing fair, taking turns, cheering for his teammates, and always shows integrity in competition.

Vincent has ADHD, and due to shortages, is often without his medication. He never lets it hinder his performance in class; maintaining straight A’s; and always keeps control of his actions and emotions, takes personal responsibility for his choices, and stays on task. Vincent is a peacemaker in the classroom, and shows kindness towards everyone, but especially those who are underprivileged. He gravitates towards those who might need extra encouragement, and is selfless with his actions. Vincent attends Assumption Church in Geneva, and is involved as a server. He is also a server during mass at Saint John School.
