RYAN COTTON
AGE 16
A-TECH

Ryan demonstrates strong leadership and school involvement through both his academic dedication and his commitment as a three-sport athlete. Over the past two years in the classroom, he has grown into a natural leader who consistently sets a positive example for his peers. He balances the responsibilities of athletics and academics while maintaining a strong focus on his goals and personal growth.

Academically, he is a straight-A student who shows up every day ready to learn and contribute. His consistency, effort, and attitude make him a role model for the students around him. He approaches his work with focus and determination, always giving his best effort and encouraging others to do the same.

He can best be described as conscientious, prepared, polite, and charismatic. He is respectful to both classmates and teachers, always comes to class ready to participate, and carries himself with confidence and positivity. His likable personality and strong work ethic naturally draw others to him, allowing him to lead by example. Even without seeking recognition, the qualities he demonstrates every day make him a trusted and respected leader within the classroom.
