CARLY KRAY
AGE 16 EDGEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Carly Kray exemplifies exceptional leadership and school and community involvement. Through her active participation in Youth Leadership, Captain's Council, Student Council, Principal's Advisory, and Athletic Council, she consistently motivates her peers, organizes initiatives, and represents her school with professionalism and maturity. Her athletic involvement is equally impressive, as she competes in soccer, basketball, softball, cheerleading, and flag football.

Her commitment to athletics has earned her numerous awards and recognition. In basketball, Carly has been named CVC Player of the Year, Ashtabula County Player of the Year, Team MVP, and has earned multiple All-District and All-County honors. In soccer, she helped her team secure the school's first-ever Sectional Title and has received Team MVP and All-County accolades. In flag football, she contributed to a State Runner-Up team, earned First Team All-NE Region honors, and was named Cleveland Browns Player of the Week. Carly's character sets her apart, as she is driven, dedicated, and compassionate. She manages a demanding schedule while maintaining poise, responsibility, and academic excellence. She has earned the Robert Fodor Service Award twice for her community contributions, demonstrating her commitment to helping others. Her perseverance, leadership, and integrity make her a positive influence who leaves a lasting impact on those around her.
